

SOCIAL SECURITY AND PROTECTION FOR THE ELDERLY: CHALLENGES AND STRATEGIES IN LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN AND INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCES

ILO Sub-regional Office for Andean Countries
Lima, November 30 - December 1, 2009

Draft Agenda

November 30, 2009

8:00-9:00 Delegate Registration

9:00-9:30 Opening remarks

Antonio Prado, Deputy Executive Secretary ECLAC

José Luis Daza, Director of the ILO Sub-regional Office for the Andean Countries

Kerstin Sieverdingbeck, First Secretary, Technical and Financial Cooperation Office,
Embassy of Germany, Lima

Carmen Pagés-Serra, IDB Washington

Manuela García Cochagne, Minister for Employment, Peru

First Forum

Latin American social security systems: current and future challenges to overcome access barriers and foster equity

9.30-9.50 Coverage of contributory and non-contributory pension schemes in Latin America and the Caribbean: equity challenges
Carmen Pagés-Serra, IDB

9.50-10.10 The development of the pension system reform in Chile and the increase of solidarity
Andras Uthoff, International Consultant

10.10-10.30 Comprehensive Public Policies for the elderly: a case study from Costa Rica
Adolfo Rodríguez, Consultant

10.30-10.50 Coffee break

Second Forum

Challenges for countries with low coverage

- 10.50-11.10 Institutional and political obstacles to fostering coverage and development of regional pension systems: the political economy of Peruvian reforms en Peru
Pedro Francke, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Peru
- 11.10-11.30 The ongoing reform in Ecuador
Jeannette Sánchez, Minister and Coordinator for Social Development, Ecuador
- 11.30-11.50 Coverage of pension systems in Guatemala, Nicaragua: pending responsibilities
Maria Castro, ICEFI, Guatemala
- 11.50-12.10 Commentator and moderator: Francisco Sorto Rivas, Supervisory authority for pensions, El Salvador
- 12.10-12.45 Delegate participation
- 12.45-13 Speaker response
- 13-14.30 Lunch break

Third Forum

Fighting elderly poverty: integrality or social assistance?

- 14.30-14.45 The "social floor": income security for the elderly in the framework of a fundamental social protection scheme
Alejandro Bonilla García and Adriana Figueiras, Social Security Department, ILO Geneva.
- 14.45-15.00 The implementation of the basic pension "Renta Dignidad" in Bolivia: achievements and challenges
Marcelo Ticona, General Director, Pension department, Viceministry of Pensions and Financial Services, Ministry of Economy and Public Finance, Bolivia.
- 15.00-15.15 State social security and protection for the elderly in Bolivia
James Blackburn and Guillermo Aponte, HelpAge International
- 15.15-15.30 Social security for the elderly: from the perspective of development cooperation
Matthias Meissner, GTZ
- 15.30-15.45 The development of Brazil's State pension system
Eduardo da Silva Pereira, Coordinator of the Secretariat for Social Policies, Brazil
- 15.45-16.00 Hacia el establecimiento de un sistema de pensiones no contributivas en el Perú
Federica Arnillas Lafert, Presidente Mesa de Concertación para la lucha contra la pobreza del Perú
- 16.00-16.15 Commentator and moderator: Ana Sojo, ECLAC
- 16.15-16.35 Delegate participation
- 16.35-17.10 Speaker response
- 17.10-17.30 Coffee break

Fourth Forum

On the road toward developing equitable pension systems: lessons from international experiences

- 17.30-17.50 Overview of European reforms
Julio Gomez, ILO Sub-regional Office for the Andean Countries
- 17.50-18.10 State Pension in Sweden: lessons for equitable policies
Petter Odmark, Ministry of Social Affairs, Sweden
- 18.10-18.30 Reforms of pension systems in Asia: the case of Indonesia
Prasetijono Widjojo, Deputy Minister for Poverty, Manpower and Small and Medium Enterprises, BAPPENAS National Development Planning Agency, Indonesia
- 18.30-18.50 Commentator and moderator: Alvaro Vidal, Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú
- 18.50-19.10 Delegate participation
- 19.10-19.30 Speaker response
- 19.30-21.00 Cocktail

December 1, 2009

Fifth Forum

Certain views on pension system financial and actuarial sustainability

- 8.30-8.50 Financial sustainability of Argentina's social security reform
Carlos Oscar Grushka, National Social Security Office, Argentina
- 8.50-9.10 The impact of the global financial crisis on Chile's pre-funded individual scheme: lessons regarding the regulatory challenges
Eugenio Rivera Urrutia, Fundación Chile XXI
- 9.10-9.30 Fiscal and tax strains on Brazil's social protection for the elderly
Marcelo Caetano, IPEA
- 9.30-9.50 Demographic evolution and actuarial vulnerability in the region's pension systems: a comparative overview
Miguel Angel Fernández, Director of the Inter-American Center for Social Security Studies (CIESS)
- 9.50- 10.10 Commentator and moderator: Waldo Andrés, IDB
- 10.10-10.30h. Coffee break
- 10.30-10.50h. Delegate participation
- 10.50-11.10h. Speaker response

Sixth Forum

Population ageing and rejuvenation: How to benefit from a continent submerged in policies conciliating work and family?

- 11.10-11.30      Conciliating work and family: Dependency and models concerning existing services
Luciana de Barros Jaccoud, IPEA
- 11.30-11.50      Labor and family: new social conciliations forms of co-responsibility in Latin America and the Caribbean
María Elena Valenzuela, ILO Chile
- 11.50-12.10      Timetable of conciliatory policies in Europe
María Huerta, OECD Paris
- 12.10-12.30      Commentator and moderator: Irma Arriagada, International consultant
- 12.30-12.50      Delegate participation
- 12.50-1.05        Speakers' response
- 1.05- 1.15        Closing remarks
José Luis Daza , Director of the ILO Sub-regional Office for the Andean Countries
Antonio Prado, Deputy Executive Secretary ECLAC